

Victims

Dr. Gerald P. (“Geep”)Fisher

Date of Birth: 3/28/44 (Age: 57)

Loving Husband and Father

Resident of the State of Maryland

Geep was a highly regarded and prominent principal at Booz Allen Hamilton. His ever-present smile and winning nature made him beloved by Generals and young children alike. On September 11, 2001, Geep was briefing General Timothy J. Maude on Army personnel initiatives prior to a conference that they were to lead that day. That morning he reminded his wife Kris of her birthday dinner planned for that evening, sent flowers to her office and headed to work at the Pentagon.

Col. Ronald F. Golinski (retired)

Date of Birth: 9/30/41 (Age: 59)

Loving Husband, Father and Grandfather

Resident of the State of Maryland

Ron had served 36 years in the Army obtaining the rank of Full Colonel. His wife and six daughters revered and loved him. Even after retirement, he was drawn back to serve his country as Military Personnel Management Specialist for the U.S. Army, stationed at the Pentagon. On the morning of September 11, 2001, as every morning, his wife Irene awoke at 4:45 a.m. in order to make him breakfast. They shared stories, a kiss and he left for work. After the World Trade Center crashes, Irene called Ron at his desk begging him to come home. Ever at his post, Ron was still speaking with Irene at 9:37 a.m. when the phone went dead. Three minutes later the networks were reporting an explosion at the Pentagon.

Angela M. Houtz

Date of Birth: 9/6/74 (Age: 27)

Loving Daughter, Sister and Granddaughter

Resident of the State of Maryland

Angie was completing the U.S. Naval Intelligence Investigation of the USS Cole disaster when she was called back to the Pentagon to resume supervisory responsibilities. As a Naval Intelligence Specialist, her duty was to gather daily intelligence information from around the globe and present it to the Admirals for policy implementation. It was a position of enormous responsibility and one that she performed exceedingly well. She was very proud of her quick rise through the government ranks and was by all accounts a shooting star in the complex firmament of military intelligence. Angie had taped a note to her vanity mirror that she saw each morning before heading to work: it read "I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Nehemiah 6:3"
