KEITH S. FRANZ

Keith S. Franz is a partner of Azrael, Gann and Franz, LLP where he concentrates his practice in the area of airline crash litigation. Keith is currently representing several families touched by the horrors of the September 11th terrorist attacks and has represented victims in many celebrated civil cases throughout the United States, including multi-district complex litigation in Federal Court.

Keith's work has helped expand Maryland's wrongful death statute. He is regarded as a leading legal authority on victims' rights and lectures frequently on the subject throughout the country.

JUDSON H. LIPOWITZ

Judson H. Lipowitz is a partner of Azrael, Gann and Franz, LLP where he practices in the areas of complex personal injury and wrongful death law. Jud is a champion for victims' rights and provides considerable pro bono efforts to advance the cause of victims and victims' rights organizations.

Jud is integrally involved in the national litigation being pursued on behalf of several clients who lost loved ones in the World Trade Center and the Pentagon on September 11, 2001 and has successfully represented victims of other commercial airline disasters and a variety of general aviation crashes.
